Interested in contributing money, time and skills to Africa
Interested in starting a charity for development in Africa

Africa-Gives will connect you with these opportunities

Africa-Gives provides a platform, network and support for the young generation of diasporan Africans; offering guidance on how to capitalise on the growing opportunities in a fast changing continent.

Africa-Gives challenges young people to innovate and activate new and effective ways of enhancing how Africans give to Africa

Launching Africa-Gives

Date: Wednesday, 4 July 2012 Time: 09.00 to 11.00 (Tea & coffee will be served)
Royal Institute of International Affairs, Chatham House, 10 St James's Square, London SW1Y 4L

Ms Hadeel Ibrahim – Director of Strategy & External Relations, Mo Ibrahim Foundation

Mr James Nyoro – Africa Managing Director, Rockefeller Foundation

Prof. Cathy Pharoah – Director, CCGP, CASS Business School, City University

Through remittances, Africans sent over $40 billion to the continent in 2011. Beyond this, there is a new wave of high profile philanthropists such as Mo Ibrahim and Tony Elumelu, both bringing conventional philanthropy to the continent. New platforms like Africa-Gives seek to energise philanthropic giving amongst young Africans. This seminar will provide a peek into the world of the new African philanthropy, as we launch the ground-breaking Africa-Gives initiative.
